SELP is a flexible program that offers a year-long series of workshops & activities designed to complement undergraduate students’ on-campus employment experience. SELP is geared towards the professional development of student employees and provides opportunities to intentionally promote students’ growth in respect to the University’s Student Development Outcomes.

To find out more, contact:
Student Employment Leadership Program
selp@umn.edu
www.selp.umn.edu
Join the SELP group on LinkedIn
511 Science Teaching & Student Services

Sponsored by the Office for Student Engagement

University of Minnesota
Driven to Discover™